Speakers

JEFF GRIFFITH is the Team Leader of the Road Safety Marketing Office at the Ministry of Transportation. He is a licensed mechanic, worked as a Transportation Enforcement Officer, and an instructor for the Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance program. He was the Northern Regional Planner before his current position.

LORNA BORATTO is a Public Health Nurse with Oxford County Public Health and has been in injury prevention for 20 years. She is involved in numerous provincial initiatives including the Task Group of the Ontario Public Health Association's (OPHA) Health and the Built Environment Working Group and the Task Group of OPHA's Driver Awareness and Knowledge of Safely Sharing the Road with Cyclists.

WAYNE DAUB is the Executive Director of the Ontario Federation of All-Terrain Vehicle Clubs, (OFATV). He is involved with the National Off-Highway Vehicle Conservation Council, Ontario Trails Council, Oxford County Trails Council and Oxford County Injury Prevention Team.

ANDREW DAVIDSON is the Manager of the Road Safety Marketing Office, Safety Policy and Education Branch at the Ministry of Transportation. He is a member of the Canadian Association of Road Safety Professionals, and a strong advocate for reducing injuries and deaths on our roadways.

DR. SCHWEBEL earned his BA from Yale University and a PhD in clinical psychology from University of Iowa. He is the author of over 120 peer-reviewed papers, and his research is dedicated to understanding and preventing child and adolescent unintentional injury.

OPP INSPECTOR MARK ANDREWS is the Unit Commander of Traffic and Marine in the North East Region. He has lectured at numerous colleges and universities. He is a member of the Ontario Injury Prevention Practitioners Network's Motor Vehicle Collision Sub-Committee.

WAYNE ATKINS is a Boating Safety Officer with Transport Canada. He implemented the PFD Loaner Program for Ontario Region in 18 different communities, and also conducts enforcement training. He previously served 24 years with the Canadian Forces.
